

The IGDA Flash SIG is currently looking for candidates to become its first officers/chairs and advisors. They are looking to fill the positions of:

Chair
2 Vice Chairs
Gaming Industry Vice Chair
Flash Industry Vice Chair

The responsibilities of the Chair and Vice-Chairs will include things like: evangelizing the Flash SIG, setting up sub-committees to head up specific special interests that the group may have, get the community or some individuals to continue to build a knowledge base (white papers and such), helping setup and running meetings at the GDC and other shows, help maintain the WIKI and other things like that.

As an officer, you should expect to maybe spend an hour or two a week working on things, but there are no strict requirements. The Industry chairs should be a member of the game or flash industries, and will be responsible for focusing on the needs of one of those industries specifically.

If you are interested, please email "flashsig at igda dot org" and post a quick Bio of yourself to the LinkedIn message board. They will vote for the positions the week of June 7th, after E3.
